MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, Panel B
Psychological Strategy Board

SUBJECT: Inventory of Instrumentalities

The following comments are submitted with respect to Inventory of Instrumentalities:

1. Section II, page 3, paragraph B-2:

Divided opinion exists as to the feasibility of including a paragraph C under 2, which category lists intelligence and analysis facilities. The basis for pro opinion is that authentic and timely intelligence contributes as an effective instrumentality to psychological warfare and a listing would be useful. Con opinion indicates that the lists could grow at infinitum to even include policy facilities, etc. By the same token, research facilities and, in particular, those which deal with psychological vulnerabilities and methods of attack should also receive a separate listing. I would recommend that intelligence and analysis facilities not be included.

2. Section III, page 5:

Add: Army War College.

Section III, page 8:

Add: Naval War College.

Section III, page 9:
